

What they said about the Healthcare Communications Forum 2005

"I can't remember when I've had a better time! Conferences of this size always are engaging, but yours was particularly good. I thank you for pulling together such an interesting conference filled with interesting people."

Dr. Deborah S. Bosley
Director of the Center for Writing, Language, and Literacy
Associate Professor of English
University of North Carolina

"What a rare opportunity to think deeply and share ideas with world wide experts about the opportunities and innovations that lie ahead for a business segment that is about to go through a metamorphosis. Sure we all could have been back at our busy schedules and meetings at the office—but I doubt we would have been nearly as productive in gaining the insight into what really will matter to our businesses and what we can do about it today. Well worth the investment of time and money."
